

Saira Grube
Artist Bio

Contemporary mixed media artist Saira Grube lives and works locally in the Bay Area. She graduated from the California College of Arts and Crafts with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Ceramic Sculpture.

She continually pushes out of her field to extend her talents to other media. This series of contemporary mixed media pieces were created during the coronavirus quarantine period. The artist used materials that she had at hand at in her backyard studio to create thought-provoking and whimsical dreamscapes.

Her work has been shown in the de Young Museum in San Francisco, galleries in Walnut Creek, Mendocino, Benicia, Danville, and Oakland, and was included in the personal collection of renowned ceramic artist Viola Frey.
