Artist Statement for TIME

Time by Percy Bysshe Shelly

Unfathomable Sea! whose waves are years,
Ocean of Time, whose waters of deep woe
Are brackish with the salt of human tears!
Thou shoreless flood, which in thy ebb and flow
Claspest the limits of mortality!

And sick of prey, yet howling on for more,
Vomitest thy wrecks on its inhospitable shore;
Traucherous in calm, and terrible in storm,
Who shall put forth on thee,
Unfathomable Sea?

I began this series as an offshoot of my prior landscapes having to do with climate change. Indeed, that continues to be a consideration for this work, as rising sea levels are always in the background of all of our minds these days. However, I have begun to think of these images as metaphors for the incessant passing of moments, one into another. None has captured this idea better than Shelley.
