

Artist Statement

My work is intuitive and abstract, conceived from influences gathered over time. Inspired by time spent in the Southwest, mountains, canyons and symbols of native cultures are recurring themes that create a tapestry of visual memories.

The prints are constructed with a collage sensibility, building up layers of color as a satisfying image emerges.

I hope you enjoy the work.

Elizabeth Wooley