2024 Exhibitions:

 A Stitch in Time: Contemporary Textile and Fiber Art, August 17 – October 6, Aimee Le Duc, Juror
From their origins as practical crafts of protection and warmth to impractical expressions of our creative imaginations and stories, the evolution of fiber arts parallels and tells our own histories.

 Animalia, October 26 – December 15, Isabella Kirkland, Juror
This exhibition seeks to showcase artists' representations of the animal world, both real and imagined interpretations, including the place of the human species and human activity within the larger animal universe.

Art Education Programs:

 Youth Art Program: Arts Benicia offers afterschool and in-school art education programs and a biennial Next Generation exhibition.

 Teen Art Program: Creative opportunities for teens in our community; classes, workshops, docent training, mentoring and apprenticeship experiences.

 Family Art Days: Free, fun creative event for all ages including viewing a gallery exhibition and hands-on art making experiences.

 Volunteer Docent Program: Training for volunteers who assist school groups and the public who visit the gallery and the historic Commandant's Quarters.

 Printmaking Program: Signature printmaking program founded in 2002 by William Harsh. Weekly Printmaker's Workshops and print-based classes.

Special Events:

 Sunday, October 6, 4-6 pm: Champagne, Chocolate & Blues
A mix of delicious champagnes, Cava, and non-alcoholic cocktails with music by Alvon, Ambassador of the Blues; silent auction of gift baskets.

 Friday, December 13, 5-9 pm: Holiday Spirits: Buenos Noches
A fun, lively holiday celebration featuring special spirited cocktails, hearty appetizers, dancing and more!
